WHO ARE WE?

EDPB and EDPS - young and dynamic institutions

Regulation (EU) 2016/679 provides for the establishment of the European Data Protection Board (EDPB), a body of the Union with legal personality that shall act independently. The EDPB, established in 2018, is composed of the Heads of national data protection supervisory authorities and the European Data Protection Supervisor. The EDPB is responsible for promoting the correct and consistent interpretation and application of the Regulation and for promoting cooperation between supervisory authorities throughout the Union.

The EDPB receives analytical, administrative and logistical support from the EDPB Secretariat that is provided by the EDPS.

The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS) was established in 2004, in Brussels, Belgium. As the European Union’s independent data protection authority, we strive to be an impartial centre of excellence for the enforcement and reinforcement of EU data protection and privacy standards, both in practice and in law. Our organisation employs about 120 staff members, most of whom are EU officials, but we also welcome Contract Agents and Seconded National Experts, working full-time or part-time.
The EDPS - a great place to work

We value flat hierarchical structures and an open door policy to foster innovative ideas and a strong collaboration between colleagues. To ensure our staff's well-being and motivation, we believe that it is essential to strike a good work-life balance. To achieve this, we offer various flexible working arrangements, as well as learning and development opportunities, such as job-shadowing and training programmes.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Someone who:

- fits in an informal and friendly yet professional working environment;
- has excellent leadership skills, a genuine interest in and talent for people and process management;
- brings their creativity and initiative to the table;
- appreciates working collaboratively with the hierarchy, other Heads of Sector and colleagues on a variety of projects;
- enjoys engaging constructively with stakeholders, based on our core values: integrity, impartiality, transparency and pragmatism.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The job vacancy is in the EDPB Secretariat. The Unit is in charge of providing analytical, administrative and logistical support to the European Data Protection Board (EDPB). The jobholder will work under the authority of the Chair of the EDPB and the Head of the EDPB Secretariat, coordinating the Sector’s core activities. These include providing general administrative and logistical support to the EDPB and to the staff members of the EDPB Secretariat, such as relating to the organisation of meetings, translation and proofreading processes, reimbursement of experts’ expenditures, organisation of missions, and administrative support relating to financial and budget matters. It plays a key role in facilitating the organisation of EDPB plenary and expert subgroup meetings and dispatching information and communication to the appropriate people.

As Head of Sector - Administration, your main responsibilities will include:

- Lead the development and implementation of strategies relating to administrative matters;
- Supervise the daily operations of the a team of administrative assistants, including those in charge of the operational initiation of financial matters and of the preparation and monitoring of the execution of the budget to ensure effective management of the tasks;
- Plan the budget for the Administration Sector, while ensuring alignment between its strategy and operational needs;
- Organise the Sector's responsibilities and supervise the efficient delivery of its contributions, to ensure service continuity;
- Assign duties and tasks to the staff of the Sector, determining the efficient division of tasks;
- Supervise and coordinate work and assignments;
- Develop procedures related to the responsibilities of the Sector and oversee their implementation;
• Support the hierarchy and propose appropriate solutions and lines to take on matters relating to the activities of the Sector;
• Foster teamwork among staff in the Sector, maintain open communication with and within the team, inform staff on all relevant strategic aspects and policy changes;
• Collaboration and establish synergies with other EUIs to ensure efficient service provision, streamline processes and resolve bottlenecks.
• Oversee the efficient organisation of approximately 360 EDPB meetings per year at the Commissioner or expert level;
• Manage the organisation of translation and proofreading processes of official EDPB documents in all EU languages;
• Oversee the use of EDPB contact lists (containing more than 1000 contacts) to ensure they remain up to date and enable efficient communications with the stakeholders;
• Coordinate and streamline the organisation of the missions of the EDPB Chair and Deputy Chairs;
• Oversee the operational initiation of procurement procedures and administrative expenditure files;
• Supervise the preparation, forecasts, review and monitoring of the administrative budget, including by contributing to the drafting and planning of the budget.

You may also be required to carry out additional tasks when necessary and in the interest of the service.
