Dear SUPERVISION

I haven't received any acknowledgement of my email nor any reply yet and the two month to bring EDPS decision to the CJEU are very close. Should I expect a reply in the coming days?

I am starting to write my application to the CJEU tomorrow and my letter before action to the EC (Letter before action seeking damages under Article 65 EUDPR) is almost done. I really would like to avoid both.

Thanks for your time.

Best regards.

Dear SUPERVISION

I haven't received any acknowledgement of my email.

I would like to add the following paragraph from the EDPB's [1]

Nor EUIPO nor EPSO have ever informed me about the unlawful processing they were carrying out.

Nor EUIPO nor EPSO have ever provided me with a single document or logs.

Instead of acting lawfully and allow me to verify the lawfulness of their processing by giving me the requested docs and logs, both decided to delete my data and accuse me of being reiterative....

The following is an screenshot of my EPSO profile taken on 2022 (before the deletion) where my EUIPO/CAST/1/16 can be seen as the last application on my EPSO profile :

The following is the same screenshot taken in 2023 (after the deletion) where a very old application from 2007 can be seen as the last application as all newer applications were deleted after my request for access.
