Subject: Re: EUIPO - ir 2048579 - Inform about a IT security incident

To whom may it concern

I have become a big fan of transparency since one year ago more or less.

Please find attached a digitally signed PDF with some screenshots containing a browsing session through my profile on EUIPO's Sap SuccessFactor recruitment portal.

This PDF has been created using eGarante's third party witness service: I can provide a video for the same session too if necessary but it contains quite personal information and at this moment I don't think it is necessary. Anyway it is EUIPO that has to show compliance and the logs.

eGarante provides its customers with the use of a remote browser hosted in eGarante's infrastructure and under its supervision. eGarante saves the browsing session. The present document certifies the existence of such session and its recording.

Page number 5: Shows jobs applied (please pay attention to the application date)

Selection procedure	Application date
Solution Architects and Data Scientist Specialists	11/05/2019
EXT/21/31/AD6/Data Analyst (M/F)	19/03/2021
EXT/22/08/AD6/DTD - Business Analyst	14/02/2022
EXT/22/82/AD6/DTD - IT Specialist	10/07/2022

Page number 7: Shows CV and cover letter last updated dates 23/08/2022 for an application Solution Architects and Data Scientist Specialists which application date was 11/05/2019

Page number 9: Shows documents for the same application with dates 19/03/2021 and 08/06/2019 while the application date was 11/05/2019

Page number 11: Shows CV and cover letter last updated dates 15/05/2023 and 23/11/2022 for a application EXT/22/82/AD6/DTD - IT Specialist which application date was 10/07/2022

Page number 13: Shows documents for the same application with date 19/03/2021. Also there is a missing file that I uploaded and it is not there anymore.

Page number 15: Shows CV and cover letter last updated dates 24/11/2022 and 20/10/2022 for a application EXT/21/31/AD6/Data Analyst (M/F) which application date was 19/03/2021

Page number 17: Shows CV and cover letter last updated dates 09/02/2023 and 20/10/2022 for a application EXT/22/08/AD6/DTD - Business Analyst which application date was 14/02/2022

I have no doubt that my profile has been manipulated and here you are the evidence. Yet EUIPO denies my right to see the logs and the documents I uploaded, that are not the same that can be seen on my profile and also denies my right of restriction and continues manipulating my personal data.

EUIPO's hasn't provided me a single log was provided based on the assumption that providing me the logs the right of others could be affected. No a single explanation about this was provided. On EDPB's guideline on Right of access the following can be found:

“[...]”

The general concern that rights and freedoms of others might be affected by complying with the request for access, is not enough to rely on Art. 15 (4) GDPR. The controller must be able to demonstrate that in the concrete situation, rights or freedoms of others would, in fact, be impacted.

Example 34: A person who is now an adult was cared for by the youth welfare office over a number of years in the past. The corresponding files may possibly contain sensitive information about other persons (parents, social workers, other minors). However, a request for information from the data subject cannot generally be rejected for this reason with reference to Art. 15(4) GDPR. Rather, the rights and freedoms of others must be examined in detail and demonstrated by the youth welfare office as the controller. Depending on the interests in question and their relative weight, providing such specific information may be rejected (e.g. by redacting names).

On EDPB's guideline on Right of access the following can be also found:

“[...]”

97. Thus, subject to the specific facts of the case, when assessing a specific request for access, the following types of data are, inter alia, to be provided by controllers without prejudice to Art. 15(4) GDPR:

Data knowingly and actively provided by the data subject (e.g. account data submitted via forms, answers to a questionnaire)

Observed data or raw data provided by the data subject by virtue of the use of the service or the device (e.g. data processed by connected objects, transaction history, activity logs such as access logs, history of website usage, search activities, location data, clicking activity, unique aspects of a persons behaviour such as handwriting, keystrokes, particular way of walking or speaking);

[...]"

Regarding EUIPO's internal logs about the purposes of accessing my data, etc. They can contain employees data so I am ok if this identifiable information is redacted as explained on before on EDPB's guideline, also this is aligned with recent recent case J.M vs Pankki S (Case C-579/21) that concerns the interpretation of 15(1) of the GDPR, that is equivalent to article 17(1) of the EUDPR:

2.Article 15(1) of Regulation 2016/679

must be interpreted as meaning that information relating to consultation operations carried out on a data subject's personal data and concerning the dates and purposes of those operations constitutes information which that person has the right to obtain from the controller under that provision. On the other hand, that provision does not lay down such a right in respect of information relating to the identity of the employees of that controller who carried out those operations under its authority and in accordance with its instructions, unless that information is essential in order to enable the person concerned effectively to exercise the rights conferred on him or her by that regulation and provided that the rights and freedoms of those employees are taken into account.

EUIPO hasn't provided any information relating to consultation (as a matter of fact 0 logs) operations carried out on a data subject's personal data and concerning the dates and purposes of those operations constitutes information which I have the right to obtain from the controller under that provision.

EUIPO hasn't shown any EUDPR compliance as the lack of logs doesn't allow me to verify the lawfulness of EUIPOs processing activities.

Feel free to contact me if you have any doubts.

Best regards

Hi,

I don't think this is a valid reply. IT security incidents usually have logs, passwords and very sensitive information so there is no need for a middle man.
