If I understand correctly you want to publish an act amending a previous act, not a corrigendum, is this correct? In this case it will be treated in the normal production workflow. Can you send us the pilot language to have a look?

Thank you

Dear [REDACTED]

It is actually an amendment of a Decision dating from 2020. So not a corrigendum as such I suppose?

Dear [REDACTED]

The deadlines described have to do with corrigenda. Your document is a new one isn't it?

Dear [Redacted] OP colleagues in copy,

I would like to explore whether below deadlines still apply?

We have a decision in the pipeline to be adopted in the next few days, which will have to be published in the L series in all languages swiftly after.

Many thanks in advance &

wishing you all a nice afternoon

Hi [Redacted]

I just checked with the colleagues for the L-series and they told me that the L corrigenda are assembled and published together on Thursdays. So if you really want to make it for a particular Thursday, you have to send the files till the previous Monday.

Thank you for your understanding.

Best regards
